PETITION FOR REHEARING

Mobil Oil Corporation (Mobil), a respondent herein, respectfully petitions this Court for rehearing upon the order entered on June 7, 1972,[1] denying the petition for writ of certiorari filed on behalf of the Federal Power Commission, and moves this Court for an order (1) va-

---

[1] Mr. Justice Douglas was of the opinion that certiorari should be granted; Mr. Justice Stewart and Mr. Justice Powell took no part in the consideration or decision of the petition. The same order was entered in companion cases: Mobil Oil Corporation v. Matzen, et al., No. 71-1169; Amoco Production Co. v. Waechter, et al., No. 71-1179; Cities Service Oil Co. v. Matzen, et al., No. 71-1188; and Shell Oil Co. v. Matzen, et al., No. 71-1191.

cating the order of June 7, 1972, and (2) granting the petition.

By memorandum filed in this case, Mobil had urged that the petition on behalf of the Federal Power Commission be granted. Mobil cited its own pending petition in No. 71-1169 seeking certiorari as to the same judgment and opinion below.

On June 30, 1972, Mobil filed a Petition for Rehearing upon denial of the petition in No. 71-1169. For the reasons stated in that petition, Mobil also seeks rehearing in the instant case and urges that the petition on behalf of the Federal Power Commission be granted.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, as well as those set forth in in the petition for writ of certiorari on behalf of the Federal Power Commission, Mobil prays that this Court grant rehearing of the order of denial, vacate that order, grant the petition, and review the judgment and opinion below.

Respectfully submitted,
